COVER CHARGES AND THE HAPPY HOUR LAW

In order to be in compliance with the Illinois 'Happy Hour Law', retail licensees may not impose a cover charge unless the fee goes towards the cost of off-setting entertainment costs. For example, licensees may not charge a cover of $3.00, and then provide all-you-can-drink beer.

Licensees can, however, bring in special entertainment such as a band, and charge a cover fee. There cannot be any drink specials attached to the cover cost. All drink specials must run from open 'til close, and be available to all customers.

If you have any questions about these rules, or any aspect of the Illinois Liquor Control Act, call 312/814-2206 in Chicago, or 217/782-2136 in Springfield.
